

HALI

News & Events

HALI's weekly website roundup features a report on Santa Fe's upcoming Whitehawk show, reviews of new galleries and exhibitions at the MAK, The Met and LACMA, and a look ahead to exhibitions on chintz, Inka-era garments and Bauhaus artist Anni Albers.

Read more

Penelope's Loom, The Odyssey and a computer

Christopher Nolan's The Odyssey brings Penelope's story to the big screen, exploring the enduring legacy of her loom—from ancient Greek textiles and archaeological finds to modern art, cinema and even the origins of computing.

Read the full article

EDITOR'S CHOICE

A Persian masterpiece on display at The Met

This week's editor's choice is a rare 16th-century 'Salting' rug currently on view at The Met, on loan from the Musée des Tissus et des Arts Décoratifs de Lyon.

Read more

V&A announces landmark Chintz exhibition for 2027

London's Victoria and Albert Museum's chintz exhibition opens 18 September 2027. Uniting its collection with Karun Thakar's, it celebrates South Indian makers as major artists in design history.

Read more

'Kuba Textiles from the DR Congo', Mint Museum

There is not long left to view 'Designing Dynamism: Kuba Textiles from the DR Congo' at the Mint Museum in London, running until 23 August. This exhibition showcases the intricate and bold designs of Kuba prestige textiles, with a particular focus on the renowned prestige squares. Visit the Mint Museum website for more information.

