‘USHAK!’ leads six exhibitions for ICOC XVI in Brescia

Six exhibitions across Brescia will accompany the 16th International Conference on Oriental Carpets (ICOC), taking place on 13–16 May 2027.

At MITA (Museo Internazionale del Tappeto Antico), 'USHAK! The Most Magnificent Antique Ottoman Turkish Carpets', running from 13 March–11 July 2027, will present outstanding early Anatolian carpets from the Zaleski Collection.

A highlight is the first public presentation of an exceptional, unpublished Selendi 'bird' carpet, recently acquired by Fondazione Tassara. The exhibition offers an opportunity to examine the variety and artistic richness of Ushak weaving through major examples from the collection.

Five further exhibitions take visitors through Brescia's museums and historic interiors. 'Patterns and Mazes', at the Museo Diocesano suspends nine Persian tribal rugs in a former monastery refectory. 'The 'Glorious' and his Double', at the Pinacoteca Tosio Martinengo, pairs a monumental Ushak carpet with a medallion carpet fragment from the Zaleski Collection. '1543: The Ladies of the Mamluks' presents

Mamluk carpets in Palazzo Martinengo Salvadego's frescoed Sala delle Dame. 'Knots and Notes' brings Transylvanian rugs to Teatro Grande, while 'The Collector's Palace', at MO.CA, showcases works from private collections in Italy and abroad.

Read more about all six exhibitions and plan your visit to ICOC XVI.

Join the gathering in Brescia for ICOC XVI, 13–16 May 2027.
